THE WORLD TODAY

International

SOVIET President Nikolai Podgorny plans to visit Rome early next year and possibly will meet with Pope Paul, informed Moscow and Italian sources report.

•

UN Secretary General Thant, whose term of office was extended from Nov. 3 until the end of this year, hinted he was considering a second term after all. He said on Sept. 1 he was planning to step down.

•

India's Ambassador to the UN, C. K. Trivedi, denied in New York that his nation would not sign a nuclear non-proliferation pact unless Peking also signed and agreed to halt production of nuclear arms. Four rioters were killed and scores hurt when police fired on Calcutta rioters protesting a government decision not to build a steel plant in Andhra State.

•

Radioactivity from Red China's latest atomic test drifted high over the U.S. but scientists said it presented no danger.

•

The Soviet magazine New Times highly praised "The Truth About Kennedy's Death — And Why the Warren Report Lied," by German-American author Joachim Joesten. The book charges Lee Harvey Oswald was a "discredited agent" for CIA in the pay of ultra-right-wing Texans.

11/2/66 NEWS

The Law

Smoking Falloff

THE Foreign Ministry says Brazil may "possibly" extradite three Americans who escaped confinement in Brasilia where they were serving terms for ore smuggling. Meanwhile, the remaining American prisoner,